

OUR DAILY BREAD Sliced Thin by The Editor Alex. H. Washburn

Here's Your Editor's View on Ballot Items

When you go to the polls next Tuesday, Nov. 6, you will be looking at seven propositions on the general election ballot... five constitutional amendments and two acts.

I don't need to remind you that when a citizen is confronted by numerous and complicated ballot matters he is inclined to throw up his hands and vote against all of them. But there is something here of value... perhaps a chance to make your tax dollar go where you intended it to go, and, by stopping the politicians' diversion of it, beating back the threat of more and heavier state taxes.

If you follow me in this thought I suggest that you vote FOR three measures and vote AGAINST the other four.

Our discussion takes up the various bills in the order in which they will appear on the Hempstead County ballot, which should be a helpful arrangement when you come to make up your mind as to how you will vote. That's your responsibility. The only responsibility of an editor is to discuss the proposals, to compare them with our state's taxation history, and to offer advice that your common sense will either accept or reject. Here's the story:

AMENDMENT NO. 50 — to give unlimited new taxing authority to city governments. Arkansas cities operate under a handicap because the public schools, relieved of the former 18-mill tax ceiling, no longer have a prime interest in maintaining an adequate property assessment base — but the cities (and counties, too) are still confined to a maximum of 5 mills. This newspaper would favor abolishing the 5-mill city tax ceiling — but Amendment No. 50 goes too far.

It would permit levying city income tax, city sales tax, and many others. The cities need help — but the Amendment 50 "Grab" is not the answer.

VOTE AGAINST AMENDMENT NO. 50.

AMENDMENT NO. 51 — A new and untried approach to the problem of school transfers based on racial issues. Your guess is as good as mine on this bill. But the Arkansas Education Association is strongly against Amendment 51. The AEA feels that if Amendment 51 is approved it will weaken our present Pupil Assignment Law, which has been tested and found valid by the courts.

VOTE AGAINST AMENDMENT NO. 51.

AMENDMENT NO. 52 — To provide increased salaries for state and county officials. The present maximum salary for county officials is $5,000, and No. 52 would change this to $9,850 for judges and sheriff in the most populous counties, and to $6,000 for the smallest counties, with corresponding increases in other county offices. The present salary of $10,000 for the state's governor would be increased to $18,000, with corresponding increases for other constitutional state offices.

The proposal for the governor is justified. But the blanket increase for all counties is absurd. What's needed here is not a blanket salary increase but a blanket reform of city-county government — either consolidate some of the smaller counties or consolidate county and city government into a single unit, eliminating ridiculous duplication of high-sounding offices in a pint-size population.

VOTE AGAINST AMENDMENT NO. 52.

AMENDMENT NO. 53 — This is a proposal to help the Teacher Retirement Fund with state money. In any quarrel between the public schools and the politicians of the legislature I'll go along with the teachers.

VOTE FOR AMENDMENT NO. 53.

AMENDMENT NO. 54 — This is a bill to permit use of voting machines when and if we ever get around to installing them — and providing we can pay for them. Because the machines do not keep a record of how individuals voted the present constitution forbids their use, the supreme court has decided. Therefore No. 54 must be approved to overcome this legal deficiency. Practically every public organization in the state, and both major parties, have endorsed No. 54.

VOTE FOR AMENDMENT NO. 54.

INITIATED ACT NO. 1 — To override the legislature and guarantee to the public schools 50 per cent of all the state's general revenues.

This is the most important bill on Tuesday's ballot. For a generation we have been voting new taxes for the public schools only to see so much of the money diverted to other purposes by the politicians of the legislature that new or higher taxes are constantly threatening.

In 1935 we enacted the 2% sales tax "for the schools." In 1941 we removed the exemption of food and medicine, doubling the tax "bite," again "for the schools." In 1957 we raised the sales tax to 3% across the board "for the schools."

But at almost every session the legislative politicians have robbed the schools of the money you voted to them. To cite one example: City and county governments alone get 5 million dollars a year from sales tax — equal to one-third of a cent sales tax. Right here at home Hope gets $24,000 a year, and Hempstead County $36,000 — $60,000 a year of sales tax that was supposed to go to the schools.

The legislature has been tried and found wanting. Vote the rascals out and vote the schools in.

VOTE FOR INITIATED ACT NO. 1.

INITIATED ACT NO. 199 — A bill to regulate automobile sales and set up license fees for dealers, distributors, and salesmen. State government is sticking its nose into private business, offering "protection" like a Chicago racketeer.

It would make jobs in an expanded state government. The good feature is that these jobs wouldn't cost the general taxpayer a dime — except when he bought a car, and then he'd pay for sure. See the nearest auto dealer for details too numerous to name in my limited space.

VOTE AGAINST INITIATED ACT NO. 199.

Man Collapses Following Wreck, Dies

Thaddeus A. Laba, 50, a resident of Blains, collapsed following a car-truck accident late yesterday and died almost immediately. The accident occurred on the old Blains-Hope road.

State Policeman Guy Downing and Sheriff Jimmie Griffin said that Laba apparently lost control of the truck he was driving. The vehicle veered onto the wrong side of the road and collided with an auto driven by Oliver Nelson, a Negro also of Blains.

Officers said Laba appeared unhurt immediately following the accident but collapsed shortly thereafter.

Nelson sustained lacerations and severe injuries to his left arm. Both vehicles were badly damaged. Marshal Lindo Wilson of Blains assisted in the investigation.

Mr. Laba was a retired Air Force Master Sergeant and had lived near Blains about a month, having purchased the Dale Yocom place. He was a member of the Catholic Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Winifred Toyer Laba, two daughters, Thaddia Marie and Deborah Ann Laba of the home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Casimir Laba of Pittsburgh, Pa.; four brothers, Stanley, Frank, Edward and Al Laba, all of Pittsburgh; four sisters, Mrs. Mary Klepacz, Mrs. Stella Lemanna, Mrs. Loretta Kodalski and Mrs. Clara Fajelski, all of Pittsburgh.

Arrangements are incomplete and will be announced by Oakcrest Service.

United Fund Pledges Now Total $5,108

According to the latest report some $5,108.30 has been pledged to the United Fund with only one downtown block completed, that being the Rephan block with Hody Butler as chairman.

However, others should be completed soon. No special division has completed its canvass to date but the Special Gifts Division has only one firm to contact.

The Junior Auxiliary and the Jayceettes are working residential area and have already turned in more than $300. Several employee groups, all of the industries, the professional group and the greater part of the retail division remains to be heard from.

Ed Thrash, drive chairman, urges all workers to make a special effort to get their areas worked and the pledges turned in as soon as possible.

Firms or groups participating 100 per cent include: First and Citizens National Bank; County Road Workers; Rephan's, Child's Store, Herbert Burns Store, Gunter Lumber Co., Credit Bureau, Montgomery Ward, Cox Drug Co., Tol-E-Text, Scott Store, Roy Anderson Agency, Lincoln High Schools of Washington, Moore Bros.

X-Ray Unit in Hope All Day Friday

The mobile X-ray unit took 61 x-rays at McCaskill and 133 at Blains yesterday, making the two day total 542.

Friday the unit will be at Hempstead Courthouse all day, closing at 4:30 p. m.

Morning helpers include Mrs. W. E. Trotter, Mrs. Edith Haynes, Mrs. F. C. Crow and Mrs. E. P. O'Neal.

Afternoon helpers include Mrs. Vic Cobb, Mrs. W. H. Gunter, Mrs. Paul Owens and Mrs. Frank King.

Accident Results in One Injury

Yesterday on South Main street an auto driven by Mrs. Lyle McMahan of Oakhaven was hit from behind by another auto driven by Ruby J. Reed of Bradley.

Mrs. McMahan was taken to a local hospital by a Herndon-Cornelius ambulance for observation for a possible neck injury.

Officers Torbert and Sinyard charged the Bradley Negro woman with failure to have proper brakes. The McMahan auto wasn't badly damaged. The other auto had heavy damage.

IN VAIN — Erma Jean Kerr of Emporia, Kansas, tries in vain to teach a calf to drink milk from a pail during the selection of a Kansas State University "Farmwoman Queen" in Manhattan. Miss Kerr and five other contestants also had to drive a tractor and construct a milk stool.

Guns Found in Ole Miss Dormitory

By VAN SAVELL

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—A surprise Halloween night search by combat-ready soldiers unearthed a small arsenal in a men's dormitory at the University of Mississippi. University officials vowed swift disciplinary action against students involved.

The sudden action followed the wounding of a military policeman by a firecracker, apparently tossed from a window of Lester Hall—adjoining Baxter Hall where James H. Meredith is housed.

Meredith, 29, begins his second month of classes today as the first Negro ever knowingly admitted to the 114-year-old university. He studied in relative silence Wednesday night. There were no firecracker barrages like those which disrupted the campus the previous two nights.

University officials cooperated in the dormitory search. Student Affairs Dean L. L. Love commented: "We just can't have things like that going on here. That soldier could have been seriously hurt."

The search turned up at least one dismantled M1 rifle, a dismantled pistol, several tear gas grenades, a full five-gallon can of gasoline and a large quantity of noisy firecrackers known as cherry bombs.

Neither university nor Justice Department officials would detail the weapons found in the search.

The soldiers turned over to university officials the student identification cards of at least a half dozen persons. But no one would disclose the exact number or the specific charges.

Under university procedures, a student is considered under arrest when his ID card is confiscated and must face action of the Student Judicial Council.

As the bayonet-wielding MPs withdrew their cordon around Lester Hall, Mississippi highway patrolmen and police from Clarksdale—60 miles distant—arrived on campus. The university, moving rapidly after the deputy U.S. attorney general, Nicholas Katzenbach, flew here for talks about mounting tension, asked for the reinforcements to boost campus security forces.

Just before Meredith went to the campus dining room for supper, the soldiers encircled Lester Hall, blocking all entrances.

More than 100 male students quickly gathered outside, shouting at the boys temporarily imprisoned inside.

Dean Love and other key officials arrived quickly and asked students to disperse.

Explosive feelings on the campus this week have been attributed in some parts to the usual feverishness preceding the Ole Miss-Louisiana State University football game. The two teams, bitter rivals more than a half century, meet Saturday night at Baton Rouge, La.

Wants Pay to Teachers Up to $5,000

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Forrest Rozzell, executive secretary of the Arkansas Education Association, outlined a proposal Wednesday for an eventual minimum salary for teachers from $5,000 to $11,000.

He also recommended establishment of state and county commissions to supervise school district consolidation.

The suggestions came on the opening day of the annual AEA convention, expected to bring some 3,000 teachers to Little Rock Registration for the teachers was held Wednesday Business sessions begin today.

Rozzell recommended a required minimum salary of $3,000 a year, instead of the current $2,700, for teachers with bachelor's degrees and a raise from $3,000 to $4,000 for those holding master's degrees.

Under his consolidation plan, a state commission would establish general standards and provide professional assistance to county commissions.

Rozzell also suggested:

Establishment of a commission with authority to reprimand teachers or revoke or suspend their licenses in cases of incompetence, corruption or unethical practices.

A requirement that local school boards to follow a uniform dismissal procedure.

A provision for "professional negotiation" when differences arise between teachers and school boards.

And allocation of "excess" school funds to various districts on the basis of an equal amount for each child in daily attendance.

Blockade of Cuba Is Resumed As Castro Balks at Inspection

Thant Thinks Missiles Will Be Removed

B MAXHARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)

Fidel Castro's annoyance over being bypassed by Soviet Premier Khrushchev caused the Cuban leader to reject U.N. inspection of Soviet missile removal, a high U.N. source said today.

The source said that Castro was aggrieved because Khrushchev had not consulted him before agreeing with President Kennedy that U.N. inspectors could be sent to Cuba to verify the dismantling of Soviet missiles.

These disclosures came as Acting Secretary-General U Thant plunged into a new series of diplomatic talks in an effort to get the Cuban peace effort back on the track.

Informed sources said Castro had given him an outright rejection at their first meeting in Havana Tuesday, but had been much more agreeable on Wednesday.

The belief was expressed in high U.N. circles that Castro might accept the U.N. inspection plan after his present mood passes.

Diplomatic informants in Washington said Castro had delivered a bitter trade in his talks with Thant and accused Khrushchev of having sold him down the river.

A spokesman for Thant said this was "completely unfounded." The spokesman also denied Washington reports saying Thant had had a most unpleasant trip to Cuba.

The secretary-general's first appointment today was with the current president of the Security Council, Mahmoud Riad of the United Arab Republic and with Ghana's council Delegate Alex Quaison-Sackey.

He also had appointments with Cuba's newly appointed U.N. delegate, Carlos Lechuga, who flew back from Havana Wednesday night. Lechuga arranged to present his credentials, but it was possible also that he and Thant would deal with the Cuban situation.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson had an afternoon appointment to see Thant.

Thant said on his return from Havana Wednesday night he had been reliably informed the bases would be dismantled by Friday and the Soviet equipment shipped out of Cuba soon afterward.

But Thant said nothing about arrangements for U.N. verification of the Soviet withdrawal the purpose of his trip. This omission, plus the return with him of the military aides he had taken as a nucleus of the inspection group, was taken as evidence, Castro would not agree to the foreign inspection.

The United States announced that it was resuming its naval blockade of arms shipments to Cuba.

Declares Ruling Was Misquoted

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank Holt was incorrectly quoted in a news story Tuesday as saying that starting a school term in another state will qualify a first-grader to go to school in Arkansas if he is not six years old on or before Oct. 1.

Holt said starting school in another state would not qualify a student to attend in Arkansas public school if he is not of school age.

Van Ellis, Walnut Ridge school superintendent, had asked Holt if he was legally correct in denying admission to a student who attended the first seven weeks of school in another state, then tried to transfer to a Walnut Ridge school.

600 Waiting for Shots at Fayetteville

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) —

More than 600 persons were waiting at the Washington County Health Center in Fayetteville when it opened today to receive Salk polio vaccine.

The rush to be inoculated against the disease came after nine cases of polio were reported within the last two weeks in Washington County. A 9-year-old Fayetteville boy died from the disease last week.

Dr. Paul K. Heerwagen, county health officer, estimated that 1,000 booster or initial series shots of the vaccine would be given to county residents today.

"We gave about 800 shots of the Salk vaccine Wednesday," he said. "And had to turn persons away last night before we could close the center." He estimated that 400 persons were turned away and told to return today.

County health officials have planned a mass immunization program using Sabin oral vaccine for Sunday. Heerwagen said most of the persons receiving shots today were those who had not had polio shots or who needed to complete their initial series of three shots.

Private physicians administered many more shots.

Health officials said that some 20,000 doses of the vaccine are being held in reserve at Kansas City, Mo. and will be flown to Fayetteville by the Arkansas Air National Guard if needed.

Heerwagen said the Salk vaccine arrived Wednesday but will be held for distribution Sunday.

County health officials ordered 30,000 doses of the oral vaccine from Lederle Laboratories Inc. at Pearl River, N. Y. Heerwagen said more will probably be needed.

Heerwagen said the immunization program, sponsored by the Washington County Medical Society, is aimed at immunizing the 85 per cent of the county's 55,000 residents which are suspected carriers of the disease. He based this on surveys which show when the disease breaks out, a certain percentage of the population must be carrying it.

Approximately 500 doctors, nurses, druggists and private citizens have volunteered to aid in the program Sunday. Type I of the oral vaccine will be given to all residents.

Grants in State

The association is composed of churches affiliated with the American Baptist Association, a national organization.

U.S. Has Sent Ships, Planes Back in Action

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — US Navy ships resumed their arms blockade of Cuba at daybreak today and air surveillance was ordered renewed after Fidel Castro evidently refused to agree to UN inspection of Soviet missile withdrawals.

Washington officials probably will want to verify with aerial photos a report by U Thant, acting secretary-general, that all Soviet missiles would be taken down by Friday and removed from Cuba soon afterward Thant said he was reliably informed of this Wednesday in Havana.

The blockade, suspended during two days of evidently fruitless negotiations between Thant and Fidel Castro, was due to go back into force at dawn its assignment, as before, is to keep additional offensive weapons out of Cuba.

The White House announced this Wednesday night after President Kennedy had reviewed the situation with his top level National Security Council.

Pierre Salinger, presidential press secretary, said US photo reconnaissance planes would go back into action "in the absence of effective UN arrangements" with Castro for supervising the missile base dismantling promised by the Soviet Union.

Salinger left vague just when surveillance will start again after the two-day break. Apparently this was intended to avoid tipping off Cuban anti-aircraft batteries which fired on unarmed US reconnaissance planes at the height of the crisis last weekend.

The United States has acknowledged losing one plane over Cuba and Thant said after arriving in New York Wednesday night that the Cuban government, at his request, had agreed to return the body of its pilot, Air Force Maj. Rudolf Anderson Jr., 35, of Greenville, S. C.

Until now, the United States has listed Anderson as missing in action. A Defense Department spokesman said Thant's disclosure was the first word the US government has had that Anderson was shot down over Cuba.

By all the signs, Anderson was piloting a high-flying U2 and may have been downed by a Soviet-supplied anti-aircraft rocket.

Reimposition of the blockade may serve to prod Castro. His foot-dragging on UN inspection has injected a note of uncertainty in proceedings which had seemed to be moving smoothly since Sunday when Soviet Premier Khrushchev agreed to dismantle his missile bases in Cuba and bring home his missiles.

The turn of events in Havana may have prompted Kennedy to call off a news conference, originally set for today, until the situation is clarified. Cancellation of the session was announced late Wednesday.

The blockade and aerial surveillance of Cuba had been suspended at Thant's request.

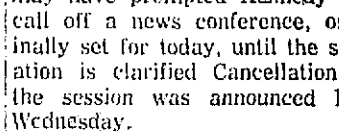

While Salinger declined to discuss the scope of the renewed quarantine, reporters got the impression that the same zones and rules would apply as during the first six days of the blockade.

The orders under which blockaders operated before—and presumably will again until the action is finally ended—called in essence for halting, halting, boarding and searching suspicious vessels.

The blockaders have authority to use force, as slight as possible but to sink a resisting ship if necessary.

He Fears Wife Is Sowing Wild Oats

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My middle-aged, stand-bitted wife is suddenly off to a fast pace after 30 years of Dolly and Joan married life. We're both past the half-century mark and have two grown, married sons. Until this take-off, she's been an exemplary wife, mother and homemaker. My suspicions were first aroused when I suggested picking her up where she works. She made some flimsy excuse about having to shop. Only when I got home did I realize that the stores close same as her business at 5:30. When I remarked on this later that evening she flew into a rage so I dropped the question. A couple of nights later I again suggested driving by for her. She said she was meeting friends and not to wait dinner. This has been going on — ever since. Unexplained absences, phony alibis. She pays more attention to dress and make-up, but not for my benefit. Her manner is cool.

This hurts for we used to be very close in all our activities. Now she doesn't care whether or not we go out together. I hesitate to think she is having an affair at this stage in life but sometimes I wonder. I asked her point blank last evening. She shrugged her shoulders and said nothing. Plainly something is wrong and that's why I am writing you. Abandoned.

Dear Abandoned: The fact that your wife doesn't tell you everything is no proof that she's two-timing. Maybe she's just plain bored. Maybe you're not as interesting as you once were.

To suspect the worst, without more evidence, is going a little strong. Give her the benefit of the doubt. After all, she's been a faithful wife for 30 years.

Be glad that she's trying to make herself more attractive. Try giving her a whirl. Say, "Look here, darling, we're in a rut. Let's stop out together, for a change." Continue to think well of her until you have absolute proof of wrong doing.

Send your problems to Helen Worden Erskine, care of this newspaper. Please enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Don't Be Lonesome."

Thant Thinks

Cuba at dawn today and that aerial surveillance of the missile sites also was being resumed. Both had been suspended during Thant's two-day peacemaking visit to Cuba.

Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan left Moscow early today for talks with the Cuban prime minister Western observers in the Soviet capital interpreted his sudden visit as an attempt to bring Castro into line with the Kennedy-Khrushchev agreement to dismantle the missile bases and send UN personnel to Cuba to verify fulfillment of the agreement.

Without mentioning the missile bases, Havana Radio said Castro is standing firm on his demand that the United States give up its naval base at Guantanamo and call off all other measures to bring down the Castro regime.

A broadcast said Castro told a rally of Havana University students his government will come out of the crisis stronger and with more prestige than before.

The Cuban prime minister scheduled a television speech for later today. Advance radio announcements said he would "fully inform" the Cuban people of his talks with Thant.

Thant, after his return from Havana, drove to UN headquarters for brief separate talks Wednesday night with chief U. S. delegate Adlai E. Stevenson and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valery V. Kuznetsov, sent here to negotiate the outcome of the Cuban crisis.

Informants said Thant would hold detailed consultations today with representatives of the United States, the Soviet Union and probably Cuba. Delegates predicted he would seek a security Council session today or Friday to ask for a mandate that would give him a stronger hand in dealing with Castro.

Thant told newsmen at the airport his talks with Castro had been fruitful.

Both the United States and the Soviet Union acted swiftly as word spread that Thant had encountered difficulty with Castro before the chartered Brazilian jet returned Thant and his entourage of advisers to New York, the United States announced it would resume the blockade and air surveillance.

Moscow Radio announced Mikoyan was going to Cuba to "exchange views on the international situation with the government of Cuba."

Mikoyan was expected to spend tonight in New York to confer with Kuznetsov and possibly with Thant. U. S. officials in Washington said there was no plan for Mikoyan to see President Kennedy or secretary of state Dean Rusk on the stopover.

The Missing Pieces May Be Trouble

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three pieces missing from the information made public so far on Cuba may contain the seeds of fresh trouble.

There's an unpublished letter, a question of understanding, and a problem of jet bombers.

1. Did President Kennedy take too much for granted when Premier Khrushchev agreed to let the United Nations supervise dismantling of Soviet missile bases in Cuba and the return of the missiles to Russia?

2. Has there been an understanding—or a great lack of understanding—between Khrushchev and Cuba's Fidel Castro on the dismantling of the missiles and the U.N. supervision of their removal?

3. Why has nothing been said publicly about the removal also of those Soviet jet bombers which, Kennedy said in his broadcast a week ago, are capable of carrying nuclear weapons?

That there's a misunderstanding standing some place showed up Wednesday night when U. Thant, acting UN secretary-general, returned from Cuba apparently after failure to get Castro to agree on UN supervision of the missile removal.

The published exchange of letters last week between Kennedy and Khrushchev nowhere spelled out clearly what kind of supervision the UN should exercise.

There is where one of the missing pieces comes in.

Over the weekend Khrushchev wrote Kennedy a letter which seems to have agreed not only to removing the missiles but permit-

Pine Bluff Survey

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—The Urban Renewal Administration has awarded Pine Bluff a $104,305 advance for survey and planning of the Pine Bluff Civic Center liberal renewal project. The advance was announced by Rep. Catherine Norrell. She said the government has also set aside $1,271,626 the total amount needed to develop the downtown civic center project, has been set aside in anticipation of a future application by the city. A $2.2 million bond issue to finance a new municipal building, city hall, fire station, police station, jail, library, armory and to provide street repairs will be brought before voters next Tuesday.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fidel Castro in a bitter tirade at his meeting with U. Thant, accused Soviet Premier Khrushchev of having sold him down the river, diplomat ic informants said today.

The highlevel sources said Thant, acting secretary general for the United Nations, reported he had a most unpleasant trip to Cuba on Tuesday and Wednesday. Castro, these sources said, volunteered his bitter remarks right at the outset of his first conference with the Burmese diploma. He stated repeatedly that he was not consulted about Moscow's decision to dismantle the missile bases in Cuba.

Castro insisted that his five demands, including U.S. withdrawal from the Guantanamo naval base, must be carried out before he would even consider permitting U.N. inspection of the missile bases and international inspection of their dismantling.

U.S. authorities restated today that Washington continues to ignore Castro's proposals completely.

ling UN observers to check on the removal But the White House never made this Russian letter public.

Kennedy's answering letter was released by the White House. In it Kennedy, referring to Khrushchev's unpublished one, said he understood the Russian to say he agreed "to remove these weapons and weapons systems from Cuba under appropriate United Nations observation and supervision."

But what does "appropriate" mean? Does it mean letting the UN observers in to see the actual dismantling and the shipping of the missiles back home? Or does it mean something else which could make Americans deeply uneasy?

In short, does it mean letting a UN team in to look around—perhaps at dismantled missile bases—and then have to take the Russian and Cuban word that the missiles had been sent back to Russia?

Even Old Man Weather extended a welcome of sorts to a group of Indonesian government officers visiting Fayetteville this week.

Members of the greeting committee fretted a bit when low clouds and a drizzle formed as the eight visitors, in the United States for a three-month look at newspaper, radio and television facilities, arrived.

But the visitors weren't upset. The rain, added to the mountains, made the Ozarks seem more like home than anything they'd seen since leaving mountainous Indonesia, they said.

Big things in Arkansas: Charles Patterson of Cedar Grove bagged a 25-pound bobcat in the Caney Creek area recently. He was hunting rabbits. And Hosea Blackmon of Arkadelphia harvested a 4 1/2 pound sweet potato. He grew the tuber in his garden at his home.

Somebody has taken the trouble to measure the general election ballot. In one county, it is 20 inches long and 10 1/2 inches wide, contains proposed amendments, two proposed acts, a road tax issue, two contested state races and 2 uncontested city, county, district and state races.

Tom Smith, an anesthetist at a Stuttgart Memorial hospital but an ardent Scuba diver in his time off, has turned his talents to salvage work of sorts.

He was called on Sunday to help recover a truck-trailer, loaded with soybeans, that had slipped from a ferry into the White River. The truck landed right side up in about 25 feet of water. Smith said he finally managed—after about 5 hours of work—to get two cables attached to the rig so it could be pulled out.

Octavio de la Saurce, a former Cuban who has lived in Miami Fla. for the past two years, has joined the faculty of the French and Spanish Department of Arkansas College.

Saurce formerly served as professor of French, dean and registrar of the National School of Journalism in Havana and has been on the staff of several Cuban newspapers.

Both Sides in India in Slight Lull

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—India

hurried more reinforcements to the front today and informants predicted the first airlift of American arms would arrive Saturday to help Prime Minister Nehru's government fight off Chinese Communist invaders.

The American equipment—mostly mountain artillery—is being flown from Turkey.

Turkey agreed to release the arms being provided by the United States after Nehru appealed to President Kennedy for military

Three days after Nehru asked for American weapons, the Indian government issued its first direct acknowledgment of the coming arms assistance.

"We are grateful for the U.S. government's sympathy and support and their offer to help us in the procurement of supplies required for our defense efforts," a spokesman said.

Terms on which the American arms are being supplied have yet to be arranged. The same goes for weapons sent by Britain and coming from Canada.

Nehru is personally handling these arrangements as well as overseeing the battlefield.

A lull has set in along the Himalayan frontier but an official spokesman reported Red Chinese mortar fire at Indian patrols around Jang, a village five miles east of the monastery town of there was no artillery reply to the Red Chinese bombardment today. The Communist gunfire dealt no casualties among Indians at Jang, where they are building up for a possible battle on the nearby 13, 94,000 high Se Pass.

A lull in the shooting along the frontier was believed only temporary.

both sides were preparing for a new round of fighting along the Himalayan border. The Chinese are expected to resume the drives that have carried them into India at 13 points since they attacked Oct. 20.

All New Delhi newspapers today hailed Prime Minister Nehru's demotion of Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon, and new demands were made that Menon be ousted from the Cabinet entirely. Nehru, 72, took over the Defense Ministry himself Wednesday and demoted Menon, his closest associate, to the secondary post of minister of defense production.

The Hindustan Times, which supports Nehru's Congress party, said: "The division of the defense portfolio between Nehru and Menon makes neither military nor political sense."

Some new British weapons already have arrived in India, and the first shipment of US arms was to be flown in today or Friday.

Nehru met with his military commanders today for the first time in his new capacity as defense minister. An official spokesman said they exchanged views on the war. Nehru actually had shoved Menon into the background ever since the border fighting started and had been dealing directly with the military leaders.

Official sources said Menon, who had come under increasing fire for failing to prepare adequate Indian defenses, would have no role in procuring arms from the United States, Britain or Canada.

American officials have long resented Menon's outspoken criticism of US policies and his avowed friendship with the Communist-bloc nations.

The United States is expected to furnish India semi-automatic rifles, light mortars, grenades, trucks, jeeps and radio equipment.

Sources close to Nehru said the prime minister had expected Menon to resign and that Menon's relegation to a secondary post was a hint for him to step out of the Cabinet voluntarily.

Total personal income reached a new high during 1961.

Remarks a Candidate Detests

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks a political candidate gets tired of hearing just before election time:

"Joe, this is no time to slow down. Yesterday you only shook 3,000 hands and kissed 75 babies."

"They love you in the 1st Ward all right. It's in the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th wards that you're in real trouble."

"Somehow we got to get up $500 more for placards—even if your wife has to take in washing."

"You've already endorsed tax cuts, motherhood, and the federal highway program. What we need is a hot new issue. How do you stand on the boll weevil?"

"The best argument I can think of for sending him to Washington is that it'll get him out of town."

"Remember, Joe, if you get elected I don't expect you to forget me. After all, I passed out more handbills for you than any body."

"Eating that hero sandwich and pizza pie put you in solid with the Italian voters, Joe. You'll find the stomach pump in the back of the car."

"We could accuse them of character assassination. Our candidate certainly is a character."

"We're coming to another crossroads, Joe. Put your shoes back on. It's time to make another speech."

"What do you mean you can't eat goulash? Don't you realize this is a Hungarian section?"

"The boss from the 3rd Ward just phoned. He says he wants you to do something for his brother-in-law now, not later."

"Promise them anything now. You can always forget it later."

"Sir, as a representative of the Teen-Agers for Better Government Committee, I'd like to ask how you stand on birth control, the tariff, the Common Market, Cuba, thermonuclear warfare and, uh, things like that."

"According to our latest secret poll, Joe, only 10 per cent of the voters are against you. The other 90 per cent don't even seem to know you're running."

"Oops, he dropped a baby. Well, there goes the election!"

Raise Indicated in Welfare Pay

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Most welfare recipients in Arkansas will receive a raise next month, state Welfare Commissioner Carl Adams said Wednesday.

He said the raise may be as much as $5.

About $60,000 of the 72,000 persons now on the welfare rolls who have not reached the maximum allowance in their aid category will receive the increase, he said.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus announced in April the last raise in given in welfare payments.

The maximum payment for old-age assistance is $65 per month; for dependent children, $105; for aid the blind, $65 and for aid to the permanently and totally disabled, $50.

Adams said raises being contained in checks being mailed this month total about $250,000. The 1963 General Assembly will be asked to increase maximum benefits in all categories, he said.

Sample Ballots Illegal

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Attorney General Frank Holt ruled Wednesday it is illegal to print or distribute sample election ballots. The opinion cited a state Supreme Court decision saying no kind of "unofficial ballot" can be used to instruct voters. The ruling said the law prohibits use of a sample ballot even if it is marked "sample." The opinion went to Mrs. Esther Tatom, recorder-treasurer of Lafayette County.

Stephens Is New Penal Assistant

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Dan D. Stephens of Clinton was named Wednesday an assistant to Capt. Lee Hensley, superintendent of the state Penitentiary.

The appointment of Stephens, general counsel for the state Highway Commission, was announced by Gov. Orval E. Faubus and approved by the Penitentiary Board.

Faubus said Hensley's health is failing and the superintendent may have to retire at an early date. The governor said the job of superintendent belongs to Hensley as long as he wants it, but he wanted someone to work with Hensley and learn the prison system.

Faubus said Stephens' salary of $9,000 a year would be paid from the governor's emergency fund until the General Assembly appropriates permanent funds.

Stephens is a former member of the state House of Representatives and former prosecuting attorney of the 14th Judicial District. He was an executive aide to Faubus in 1959 but left in 1960 to return to law practice in Clinton.

In April 1961 he was named attorney to the state Public Service Commission. He has served as commission counsel since last fall.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Creation of a new position of first assistant superintendent of the state prison system was recommended today by Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

The recommendation came in a budget suggestion submitted by Faubus to the Arkansas Legislative Council, which is in the second of six weeks of budget hearings.

The post would pay $9,600 a year. It was not included in the budget submitted by the prison itself.

Eugene P. Nunn, business manager of the prison system, told the council the new job was the governor's idea and he knew little about it.

He referred newsmen's questions to Faubus, who was not available for comment.

The only explanation Nunn offered to the council was that prison superintendent Lee Hensley, 59, will retire some day and the new job may be the first step in arranging for a successor.

However, Hensley, who joined the prison system in 1931, said he had no intention of retiring any time soon.

Several Legislative Council members expressed confidence in Hensley and told him they hoped he would stay as long as he could.

The prison system now is administered by Hensley, who runs the prison farm at Cummings and generally oversees the entire operation, and Asst. Supt. Jim Bruton, who is in charge of the Tucker Prison Farm.

The penitentiary asked for a budget of $1,386,000, up slightly from the last biennium. Faubus' recommendation was for $1,395,000 to cover the new job.

The penitentiary has 37 full-time employees to manage a prison population of about 2,000.

The Legislative Council also considered budgets of the Board of Cosmetology and the Boiler Inspection Division of the Labor Department. Both agencies are asking for slight increases.

The council decided Monday not to vote on any of the budgets until it completes this week's round of hearings.

Mountainburg, formerly called the Narrows, had a postoffice as early as 1840.

Sen. Wants Fulbright Kicked Out

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Sen. Barry Goldwater, -Ariz., thumped the tub for Arkansas Republican candidates Wednesday night and called for President Kennedy to cast out his "timid" advisors on foreign relations.

One of these, the Arizona senator said, is Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., whose opponent, Dr. Kenneth Jones of Little Rock, invited Goldwater to Arkansas.

Goldwater provided an obvious Halloween treat for about 1,500 enthusiastic GOP faithfuls with a series of anti-Democratic barbs from his extensive bag of political tricks at a rally in Barton Coliseum.

Principally he belabored President Kennedy and Fulbright for the handling of the Cuban situation up to the President's decision to demand dismantling of Russian missiles bases there.

Goldwater endorsed the firm action taken by Kennedy on Oct. 22, but he warned that a return to what he termed a policy of appeasement could be disastrous for the country.

At a news conference before his rally speech, Goldwater said he hoped it would not be necessary to invade Cuba. "But we should not be afraid of invasion if we have to do it," he added.

He said he was concerned about an apparent complacency over the seemingly easy settlement of the Cuban crisis.

"The problem is still there," he said. "Cuba is still loaded with Communist equipment, including jet bombers which could carry a larger nuclear payload than the missiles."

"It's time for an end to retreat by America," Goldwater declared. "And its time for an end to the retreaters, too."

Goldwater reminded his rally listeners - to a burst of applause - that Fulbright advised Kennedy against providing US air support for the unsuccessful Bay of Pigs invasion of Cuba in April 1961.

"I don't question Bill Fulbright's patriotism or his devotion to this state," Goldwater said. "But we must trust the administration those who keep telling us 'don't act.' These decent but timid men must be left at home."

Goldwater said he and other Republicans had urged Kennedy to do something about Cuba for two years. "The Republicans deserve some credit for what he finally did," the senator said.

Goldwater said any promise by this country not to invade Cuba would alienate Latin America and added, "We must get rid of Communism in Cuba no matter what it takes."

Russia's backdown before the firm US stand proved that firm action does not result in war, Goldwater said, adding, "I think the only way to get into nuclear war is to paint ourselves into a corner of appeasement from which there is no way out but surrender. We wouldn't surrender and someone would push that red button and boom!"

Jones and the other three GOP candidates for major office - Wilis Ricketts of Fayetteville for governor, Warren Liebong of Pine Bluff for Congress in the 4th District and Cy Carney Jr. of Fayetteville for Congress in the 3rd District - spoke briefly.

Jones shared with Goldwater the 30-minute televised portion of the rally.

"I'm glad Fulbright has reversed his position on Cuba and is going along with us, the people, at least until this crisis - that is, this election - is over," Jones said.

If Fulbright is such an expert in foreign relations, Jones asked, why did he not anticipate the Cuban crisis?

"Peace and progress to Fulbright means fear, accommodation and surrender of individual freedom," Jones declared.

Jones met Goldwater in Dallas and flew with him to Little Rock in the private plane of Winthrop Rockefeller, GOP national committeeman Rockefeller confined his participation in the rally to a few introductory remarks.

Goldwater said his trip to Arkansas would be his last of the campaign in his role as chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee. He said he had spoken for half a dozen other candidates.

Goldwater is the leading spokesman for the conservative wing of the Republican Party and he has been prominently mentioned for the GOP presidential nomination in 1964.

While Goldwater devoted the television portion of his speech to Fulbright and Cuba, he discussed the two-party system after he was off the air. Establishment of a two-party system is an advertised goal of Arkansas Republicans.

Cats, Camden, Picked to Win, Cards to Lose

By BILL SIMMONS
Associated Press Staff Writer

Gazing into the crystal ball is getting to be tricky business. There were several games last week we'd like to call upsets, and there were several close ones that went the "wrong" way.

We wound up with a 749 percentage, not exactly devastating, we admit.

But we remain undaunted until Saturday morning, at least, and here we go again.

BLYTEVILLE 13, El Dorado 12. Two teams with 3-2 conference records, the nod going to the team with the most impressive scores.

FORT SMITH 24, Hot Springs 0. The Grizzlies got stung last week and they should be enraged.

LITTLE ROCK CENTRAL 20, North Little Rock 0. There doesn't seem to be a way North Little Rock can beat a Big Nine Conference foe.

LITTLE ROCK HALL 20, Camden Fairview 7. The flashy Warriors will meet sparty opposition from the Region 4AA leader.

PINE BLUFF 20, Crossett 0. Big Nine power and pose and a healthier Gordon Norwood.

SMACKOVER 7, Texarkana 0. Hope did it, and so can the Buckaroos.

Now, through the Class AA ranks.

Springfield, Mo. 13, Fayetteville 12. The bulldogs go down to a Missouri team for the second week in a row.

Conway 21, Harrison 0. The Wampus Cats made Little Rock Central scramble for a victory last week.

Rogers 12, Van Buren 7. The Pointers, we believe, may come close to an upset.

Springdale 7, Subiaco 0. Subiaco's record is reason enough.

Jonesboro 17, Forrest City 7. The Golden Hurricane, after a week's rest, swings back into action.

Helena 12, West Memphis 0. The Indians are primed and polished.

Newport 14, Searcy 6. The Greyhounds have played good football a time or two and Searcy hasn't.

Paragould 13, Piggott 0. A matter of classification.

Stuttgart 7, Marianna 0. The Ricebirds surprised us last week. We'll give them the benefit of the doubt.

Wynne 14, McCrory 7. And maybe by two touchdowns.

Benton 21, Malvern 14. Two old foes resume a rich rivalry.

Russellville 14, Little Rock Catholic 13. A lot of personal things are involved in this one, but the Catholics have had trouble winning those kind.

Jacksonville 14, Joe T. Robinson 0. The Red Devils have a lot much size, power, speed.

Morrilton 14, Mabelvale 0. A matter of defense.

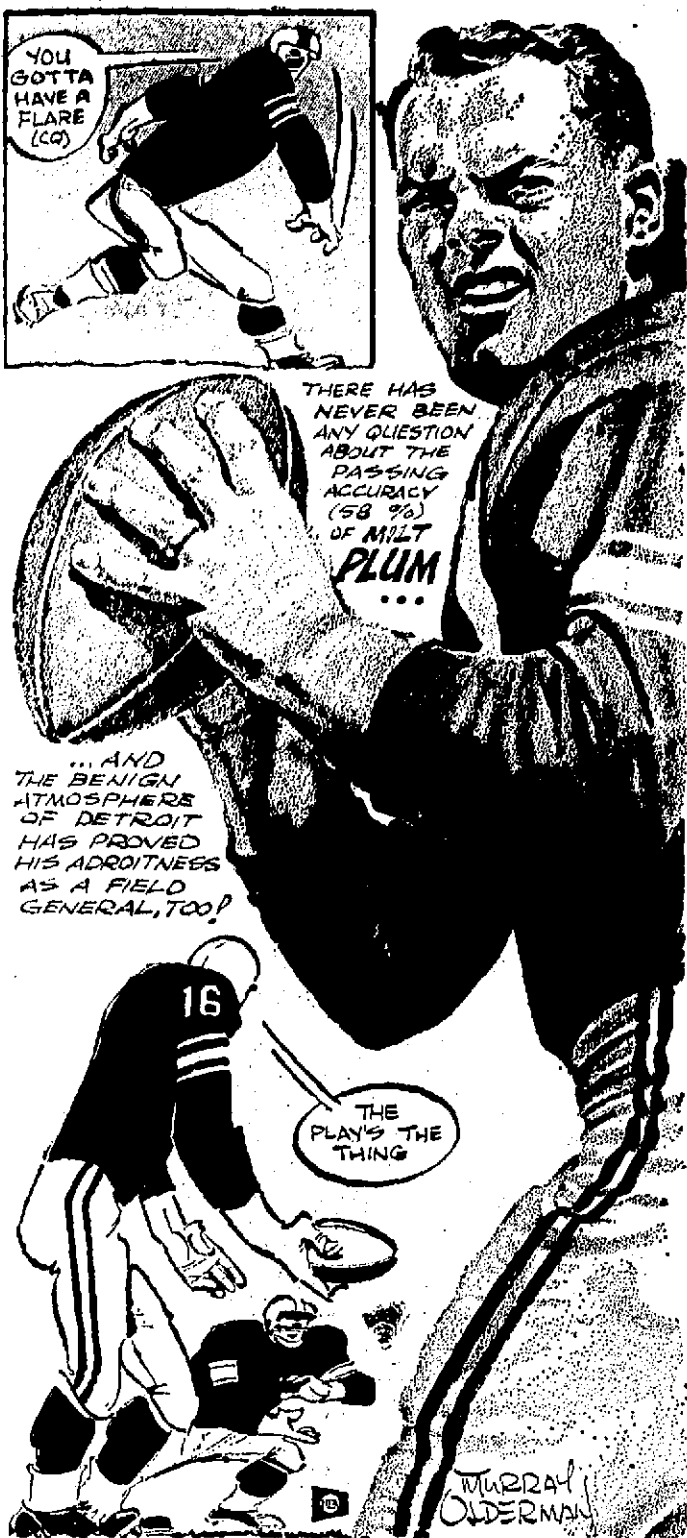

Bauxite 12, Sylvan Hills 0. This one gets answered tonight.

Hope 7, Logansport, La. 0. The Bobcats act like they're ready to go again.

Nashville 14, Magnolia 0. A Class A team over Class AA, and against our better judgment.

Total manufacturing payrolls exceeded net farm income in Arkansas for the first time during 1960.

CALLING ALL PLAYS

Hope Finishes District Play With 3-2 Mark

The Div. 4AA conference has had its first change in leadership in three seasons. The Fairview Cardinals have taken over the league lead following Camden's 21-7 loss to Hope. Camden won the district title the past two seasons. Fairview defeated Magnolia 35-7 to move into the top spot.

In other league action Crossett edged Smackover 7-6. Malvern lost a non-loop to Sheridan 12-7.

Hope has concluded its league play with a 3-2 record.

In the individual scoring race Stanley Watson of Fairview continues with 60 points. David Porterfield of Hope is second with 34 points. Tommy Burton added to his Extra Point leadership and now has 17.

The Fairview Cardinals lead in both offensive rushing and defense against rushing. Also they lead in total points scored with 136 points. In rushing they have 1,796 with Hope's second 1,736 and Malvern third 1,158. In defense against rushing Fairview has allowed 791 yards. Crossett is second and Smackover third. Camden leads in net yards passing with 549 yards, while Smackover leads in defense against passing.

The Standings:

Team	W	L	T
Fairview	3	1	0
Camden	2	1	1
Malvern	2	1	1
Hope	3	2	1
Crossett	2	3	0
Magnolia	1	2	1
Smackover	1	3	0

Fundamentals for Porkers

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. Oct. 31 (AP)—The Arkansas Razorbacks plugged away at fundamental drills Wednesday in preparation for their Saturday clash with Texas A&M at College Station, Tex.

Coach Frank Broyles said nothing new is planned for the game.

—he just wanted the squad to be ready for the variety of offensive formations the Aggies are expected to present.

Mikes Hales, sophomore nose guard on the Wild Hog defensive unit, twisted his right knee during the workout. Broyles said he couldn't tell immediately if Hales would be sidelined.

End Jim John, who worked out with the Porkers the first time this week since injuring his nose in pre-season practice, will play Saturday Broyles said, but it hasn't been decided where to use him.

Picks Winners in Arkansas College Play

By BILL SIMM

Associated Press Staff Writer

Arkansas' Razorbacks bounce back into Southwest Conference action against Texas A&M Saturday night at College Station, Tex. where they grow the boys that make the most with the least time to play.

For a clearer explanation, let's go back a couple of weeks.

The Aggies trail 3-0. They're deep in their own territory. Suddenly, it's 7-3, Texas A&M, and the clock is running out. That touchdown gallop that overturned Texas Tech's host covered better than 90 yards and consumed about a third of the last 30 seconds of play.

r, take last week, for instance Baylor leads the Aggies, again 3-0. But Texas A&M roars back with a pair of field goals in the closing minutes and win again.

For those who remember what Baylor did in the second half at Fayetteville several weeks ago, this game between Arkansas and Texas A&M might best be billed as a coronary caper.

The sting of the Texas defeat should be out of the Porker system with an easy victory over Hardin-Simmons, and the Aggies probably won't be as high for once-beaten Arkansas as they would have been for an unbeaten Arkansas.

We pick Arkansas, 21-10.

Arkansas State, slicing its wounds, tries mighty Mississippi Southern this Saturday. The Indians got shocked at Murray, Ky., last week. It's homecoming, and they have a chance to redeem themselves. But we think Southern's got too much muscle. State will lose, 20-7.

Around the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference here's how Arkansas A&M 14, Arkansas State Teachers College 7. We pick an upset, by the same score that the Bears overruled Arkansas Tech.

Arkansas Tech 13, Henderson And the Wonder Boys stay alive Ouachita 14, Southern State 0. A polished Tiger style.

Harding 20, Ozarks. The Bears have showed brilliance that Ozarks doesn't have.

Picks Porks to Win Over Texas A&M

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK (AP)—Most football addicts have had rugged Saturday nights—of various types too—but none of those nights will compare with the ruggedness of this weekend's Mississippi invasion of Louisiana State University.

In recent years Mississippi's Rebels generally have found the LSU Tigers more than they could handle. But this time the situation will be reversed with Gynn Griffing's passes dominating over Jerry Stovall's over-all play.

That's the big pick in this week's college football selections. Last week the figures were 42 correct, 10 wrong for an .808 average.

Other picks: Northwestern over Indiana; Tom Myers, Northwestern's brilliant sophomore passer, has completed two-thirds of his flips and has averaged two aerial touchdowns a game.

Alabama over Mississippi State: The Crimson Tide's defense is stingy.

Southern California over Washington: The home field gives the Trojans a slight edge.

Texas over Southern Methodist: The Texas Longhorns work out their frustration of last week's tie with Rice at the expense of the Mustangs.

Michigan State over Minnesota; or Rufus Guthrie, should be the only one team has been able to No. 1 All-America candidate.

score on Minnesota this season but the Spartans love that kind of a challenge.

Arkansas over Texas A&M: Billy Moore is the reason.

Auburn over Florida: The re-modeled Auburn machine in perfect working order.

Missouri over Nebraska: Both are unbeaten but the Cornhusker defense not on a par with the Tigers'.

Ohio State over Iowa: The Hawkeye attack consists primarily of passes and the Ohioans have many anti-aerial guns.

Pen State over Maryland: Few teams have two such good half-backs as Penn State's Roger Kochman and Al Gursky.

Georgia Tech over Duke: Tech with Rice at the expense of the followers can't decide which of their two tackles, Dave Watson or Rufus Guthrie, should be the only one team has been able to No. 1 All-America candidate.

Chiang Is 75 and Is Still Confident

By SPENCER MOOSA
TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—President Chiang Kai-shek is celebrating his 75th birthday today in good health and still voicing confidence in his Chinese Nationalist will recover mainland China in his lifetime.

This birthday is his 15th in Formosa since he quit the mainland Dec. 10, 1949.

Chiang seems as alert as ever, his eyes still as penetrating, his power of concentration unweakened.

He is strict on state business, but a genial, readily smiling host on social occasions.

He unbends with only a few people: his elder son, Gen. Chiang Ching-kuo; his secretary-general, onetime Premier Chang Chun, who has been associated with the generalissimo since they were military cadets in Japan, and Vice President Premier Chen Cheng, a fellow native of the mainland province of Chekiang, who has served under him since 1924.

Since his last birthday, Chiang has varied some of the patterns of his daily life.

He works mostly at his suburban home instead of at presidential headquarters in downtown Taipei.

He attends fewer routine military, political and economic conferences. He skips most meetings of the powerful standing committee of the Kuomintang, his ruling party.

The change in his pattern of work does not mean Chiang is idling his time away, for his routine would tax many a younger man. He is delegating more work to Chen Cheng, his political heir-apparent, and other ministers, while concentrating on matters of top importance.

Chiang also wants to conserve his health. He regards this as a duty necessary for realizing his government's supreme goal — recovery of the mainland. Aides say Chiang has had no recurrence of the bladder trouble for which he underwent an operation at the end of April.

Chiang regards the Chinese Communists as betrayers of the 1911 revolution which ended more than 46 centuries of monarchical rule in China. His long-standing policy toward them is: a fight to the finish, no negotiations and no compromise.

Handling News Part of U.S. Action

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon's information chief said today the Kennedy administration controlled news of government actions in the Cuban crisis as a weapon in the drive to force the dismantling of Soviet missile bases in Cuba.

"News flowing from actions taken by the government is part of the weaponry," said Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of defense for public affairs.

He told a reporter the timing of announcements, the rank of the government official making the announcement and other factors figured in the strategy which he summed up as "speaking in one voice to your adversary."

Putting it another way, Sylvester said: "In the kind of world we live in, the generation of news by actions taken by the government becomes one weapon in a strained situation. The results, in my opinion, justify the methods we used."

Some of the announcements — like the callup of 14,000 Air Force reserves in troop carrying units — were intended clearly to warn the Soviets that this country meant business.

So were the repeated and pointed references by State Department and Pentagon officials to President Kennedy's declaration that "further action will be justified" if offensive military preparations continued in Cuba.

Obviously a variation of the same over-all strategy was adopted for the new phase which the Cuban affair entered with the agreement in principle for removal of Soviet rocket bases from the island.

As late as Monday night solid information was impossible to obtain on such points as whether the promised dismantling was actually under way.

Two probable aims for that policy appeared to be:

To keep the other side guessing, during negotiations on the details, as to just how much the United States knows, and

To head off public evaluations of such information which, in the view of officials, might heat up the situation anew.

The government's actions in the news field during the past week of crisis were extraordinary for a short-of-war situation.

The chief sources of news on the Cuban developments were the White House, the Defense Department and the State Department.

At the Defense Department, Sylvester kept a tight rein on the individual armed services, particularly the Navy which was playing the chief identifiable role by enforcing the arms blockade of Cuba.

Deafness Has Helped to Make Actor

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — What makes an actor?

In the case of Michael Anderson Jr., deafness helped.

Mike, 19, seems to be well on his way. He is the lad who played the son of Deborah Kerr and Robert Mitchum in "The Sundowners," one of the best — and most underrated — films in the last five years.

He'll be seen this winter as Hayley Mills' romance in Disney's new epic, "In Search of the Castaways." He is leaving shortly for the Utah plains to enact the young St. James in "The Greatest Story Ever Told."

Mike is slender, animated and in love with Hayley Mills — but then, who isn't? Before leaving for the biblical location, he paused to reflect on how a physical setback can help create an actor.

He was totally deaf at 12.

"It came on gradually," he recalled. "People kept talking more and more quietly, and I had to ask them to speak a little louder."

"I finally realized that I was getting deaf when I was away at school. We used to have a lady read stories to us at bedtime. At first I sat on the opposite bed. Then I had to move to the end of the bed where she was sitting so I could hear her — then next to her. Once she spoke directly to me, and I heard nothing."

Mike still wouldn't admit his infirmity. His mother found out about it when she found him listening to television with the sound turned high.

The boy was found to have a mastoid condition. An operation started him on the road back to normal hearing.

"But I had learned to get along in a silent world," he remarked, "and I think that had a profound effect on me. Children can be terribly cruel, and I withdrew from their taunts into my own private world. My parents never wrote me while I was at school — they led busy lives — and I drugged myself with how alone I was."

"Deafness also taught me something I find of value in acting. Being unable to hear people speak I had to judge them on their facial characteristics and how they moved."

He is the son of Michael Anderson, the noted British director of "Around the World in 80 Days," "The Wreck of the Mary Deare," etc. Times were lean for the Andersons during Michael's youth, and he helped the family income by taking roles in occasional films. "The Sundowners" was his biggest break, and he's been busy ever since.

Napoleon once ordered that 79,000 acres be planted to sugar beets and he established six experimental stations for beet research and teaching.

The catnip orchids have incurved antichinae-ene of which is a highly sensitive trigger. The moment a bee touches it, the top of the pollen case flies off. Sticky pollen masses springs out onto the back of the bee.

Like man, whales have almost no hair and are warm blooded. Its temperature, is slightly lower than a man's.

P.S. Did you know that the four banks in our area was earning close to $70,000 each year in interest from idle state funds already deposited? They didn't want you to know anything about it. Boy! Our schools really do need the additional revenues now.

This answer is in a list form showing the names of the members who served in the 1961 General Assembly. Included in this list are the voting grade and rank in standing each Representative and Senator made. Their respective occupations are included.

This answer makes an indication on the attitude shown by each member, their behavior and comparison made between them. This shows a strong proof why Arkansas has ranked so low, among the lowest of all states in this major classification, Education. Including the teachers salaries rank the second lowest in the nation and is falling behind every year with other states. The Teachers' Retirement System being on an unsound basis.

The higher the grade, 100 being the highest score means this legislator worked hard for the Public Schools and for the Education and he voted right every time for school and Against diversion of funds. He made Number 1 in Rank in his house. The lower the grade he made, the more he voted for diversions of funds and Against Education. Zero is the lowest score. Do you see the average Grade in the House of Representatives and the State Senate? It is indeed low!

Did you know that at least 25 Legislators were called in the Tax Payers' suits all over Arkansas? Very few answered the charges. You see that some of them used their occupations to benefit themselves at the expense of the Tax Payers' Money.

Peaceable Assembly Predicted

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A random poll of Arkansas legislators indicates the 1963 General Assembly may be one of the most peaceable on record.

None of a dozen lawmakers quizzed at a meeting of the Legislative Council foresaw any major controversies in the coming session.

But several warned that a lot of hassle could develop if Act 1 is approved in next Tuesday's general election.

Initiated Act 1, backed by the Arkansas Education Association, would allocate 26 per cent of general revenues to public schools. A recent Legislative Council report said that if it is adopted, legislators will have to find $8.6 million in new revenue or cut about that much from budgets of other agencies which share in general revenues.

An effort to raise taxes or the need to cut budgets probably would touch off the wildest kind of controversy in the 1963 session.

Mississippi County Rep. L. H. Autry predicted the session will be "fairly smooth unless Act 1 passes." He then said flatly he does not believe the measure will be approved. Autry is a school superintendent at Burdette, but he vigorously opposes Act 1.

Sen. Tom Allen of Brinkley and Little River Rep. Marion Crank, who is scheduled to be speaker of the House, said the session probably will enact some system of voter registration to replace the poll tax. Neither thought, however, that the issue would be controversial.

Crank said he doubts if Arkansas lawmakers will approve a proposed amendment to the federal constitution to outlaw the poll tax, but he thinks enough state legislators will approve to put the amendment into effect.

Crank said he expects some effort to replace the revenue lost by repeal of the poll tax. This is between $550,000 and $600,000 a year, all of which goes to schools.

Sen. Merle Peterson of Dumas and Woodruff County Rep. Jack Oakes added their voices to those expecting little if any controversy.

Perry County Rep. Paul Van Dalsen said he would try again to get a state weights and measures law passed but said, "I don't think it will be controversial this time."

A similar measure, sponsored by Van Dalsen, was defeated in 1959. But, Van Dalsen said, a recent study showed that scales and other measuring devices in Arkansas are inaccurate and he expects this report to help him get a bill through.

Arkansas and Mississippi are the only states without adequate weights and measures protection, Van Dalsen said, and, as a result, many national manufacturers ship short-weighted merchandise to the two states.

"Everytime they have a foul-up in their factories and get some merchandise that won't pass in other states, they send it here," Van Dalsen said. "It was the same way with eggs before we passed our egg-grading law in 1961."

Pulaski Rep. J. H. Cottrell said he would make another effort to abolish the state Land Department and he expects a localized controversy over this move.

Each of the last two legislatures faced one or more major controversies of which they had pre-session warning.

Property assessment equalization was the big issue in 1959 and the battle was spirited before a compromise was reached.

Congressional redistricting was supposed to be the big hassle in 1961 but it was settled quietly and teacher retirement became the burning issue.

Oakes said teacher retirement might come up again but he doubts if it will create again the furor of 1961.

So, as of now, lawmakers aren't expecting any major fights. But, as Van Dalsen said, "We won't really know until after the election (on Act 1)."

Perry May Not Appear in Some Shows

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Necessity may prove to be the mother of welcome dramatic invention as far as CBS' "Perry Mason" show is concerned.

Raymond Burr, who has played Erie Stanley Gardner's indomitable trial lawyer for five seasons, will enter a Los Angeles hospital for minor corrective surgery in December. As a result, the company must make several shows during his convalescence without the star.

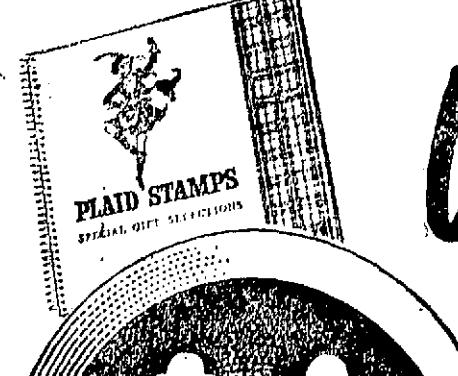

According to present plans, Palano Productions which makes the weekly courtroom drama—and of which author Gardner is an officer—plans to sign big-name guest stars, including Bette Davis to substitute.

The unavoidable absence of Burr could have a salutary effect of boosting the program out of the format to which it has adhered through the years, including that weekly courtroom confession by the murderer—usually from a spectator's seat.

The program, switched this season to Thursdays from its old Saturday night spot has dropped out of the Nielsen "top ten" rated shows but even in its new position it is still pulling a hefty share of audiences.

Tonight's 90-minute, event-by-event review of the Cuban crisis, "Clear and Present Danger" by NBC's news staff, is a substitute for a pre-emption, if you can follow the television terminology.

Originally, NBC dislodged its big, economy-size Western, "The Virginian," to present films showing the digging of a Berlin escape tunnel. A sharp controversy blew up over the show, and NBC dropped it like a hot potato on the heels of President Kennedy's speech about the missile bases.

Reason for No Gloating at Retreat

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—In the absence of public gloating by the Kennedy administration over Premier Khrushchev's retreat on Cuba is understandable. There could be worse than Khrushchev.

There are also two other good reasons for something less than wild rejoicing: Khrushchev still has to make good on his promise to pull his missiles out of Cuba; and the trouble with Fidel Castro hasn't been settled at all.

If right now there is Kremlin conflict over the Soviet blunder and embarrassment in Cuba, open gloom by American officials might be enough to tip the scales in favor of Khrushchev's tougher-line opponents and thus wreck him.

Over the years he has made noise, been a pain in the neck, and often been dangerous. But because he was more human and flexible than Stalin, he was an improvement on the old tyrant.

For example: When Stalin got the notion to drive the Allies out of Berlin, he blockaded the city. This eventually failed, but it could have meant war. Khrushchev wants to seal off Berlin, too, but he has stalled for four years in trying it.

If Khrushchev should lose out now in a power struggle because of his backdown in Cuba, it seems certain his successor would be a hard-nosed Communist more like Stalin than Khrushchev.

It was sheer clumsiness for the Soviet Union to put missiles in Cuba and not be prepared for something more impressive than a complete cave-in if the United States forced a showdown, as it did.

That there is conflict in the Kremlin over this blunder seems likely. Obvious confusion and indecision showed up in the contradictory messages Khrushchev sent President Kennedy before finally giving in.

Just because an internal Soviet leadership struggle may be going on now, Khrushchev's promise to take his missiles back home can't be accepted as fact until he actually does it. This is sufficient reason for the Kennedy administration to keep its fingers crossed until the missiles are gone.

Khrushchev has handled Castro in all this as if he were a nobody. Yet, just because the Soviet Union has been his main source of supplies and his only real hope of survival, Castro can hardly afford a break with Khrushchev.

The Russian made no promises to keep Castro quiet. And Castro hasn't been. So long as he bosses Cuba he will be a menace to the rest of the Latin American countries through the internal trouble he can create for them.

While Kennedy promised—if the missiles were withdrawn—that the United States would not invade Cuba, this did not say this country and other American republics would not work for his downfall.

Their problem is how, without a direct American invasion. Yet, they can't sit idly by while Castro, through his agents and local Communists, tries to wreck one Latin American country after another.

Since Castro couldn't survive without Soviet supplies—for instance, oil—then any subversion he attempts against his neighbors must be considered Soviet subversion as much as it is Castro's.

Therefore the withdrawal of the Soviet missiles, instead of being the end of a chapter, was like a printer's error in a story only partly written and far from finished.

Burglar Shot by a Priest in Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—A knife-wielding burglar was shot by a priest early today in the rectory of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church after, police said, he fatally stabbed the housekeeper and seriously wounded her sister.

After shooting the burglar, the priest, the Rev. Stephen O'Donnell, 49, tackled him and held him to the floor until police arrived.

Police identified the burglar as Larry Vernon, 22, of San Antonio, Tex. They said he broke into the rectory and invaded the first-floor room where the two sisters, Betty Walsh, 44, and Peggy 36, a cook at the rectory were asleep.

The sisters ran from the bedroom and shouted to awaken Father O'Donnell and the Rev. Daniel Holihan, who were asleep on the second floor.

Vernon, carrying two knives, stabbed the older sister twice and slashed at the younger woman. Betty Walsh fell dead at the foot of the rectory stairs and her sister collapsed on the stairway.

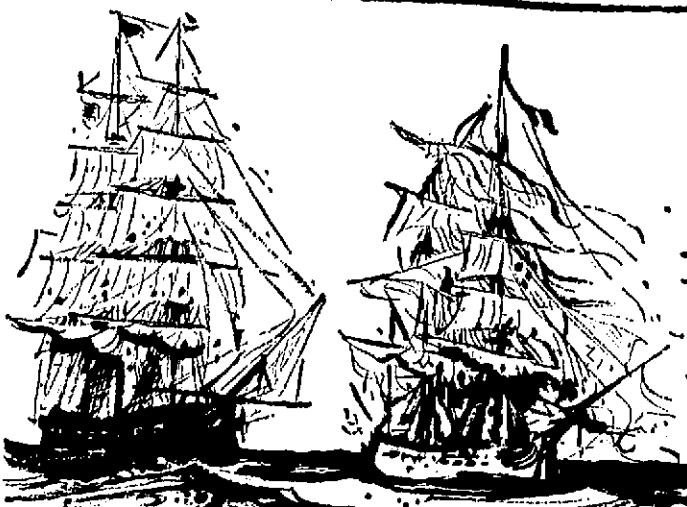

Father O'Donnell, pastor of the West Side church, and Father Holihan told police they saw Vernon ransacking the living room. Father O'Donnell, who had obtained a pistol when he heard the screams, fired once, hitting Vernon in the left leg.

INTERVENTION!

From its beginning, the United States has exerted a dominant role in the affairs of the Western Hemisphere. It has brought its power to bear against both foreign nations and its own sister republics of Latin America, in episodes ranging from minor shows of force to full-scale war. U.S. interventions have not always been as nobly inspired as we could wish, but in the final analysis, the story is one of American determination to preserve the freedom and security of the hemisphere against tyrants, both foreign and domestic.

Aside from skirmishes with the British during the 1790s over the disputed territory west of the 13 original states, the first direct U.S. action against a foreign power in the Western Hemisphere came in 1798. The previous year, France, at war with most of Europe, had begun attacking all neutral ships carrying English cargoes.

War loomed between the U.S. and France. In 1798, Congress voided all treaties with France and ordered the Navy and privateers to attack French ships. They captured 84. In 1799, the USS Constellation defeated the French Insurgente. Napoleon halted the French provocations upon becoming First Consul.

U.S. and the Hemisphere

by Don Oakley & John Lane

Intervention-in-reverse was attempted by Thomas Jefferson, during whose two terms war with England was a constant threat. British blockade of Napoleonic France was constant with Jefferson's embargo in 1807-09 against all trade with Europe. American merchant ships rotted at their wharves, their owners bankrupt. Under Madison in 1810, the embargo was limited to trade with Britain. End of British blockade in 1812 came too late to prevent war.

Negro Is Killed

MARKED TREE, Ark. (AP)—R. C. Perry, 26, a Negro of Marked Tree, was shot to death Tuesday night and police said they arrested Isaac Hill, 33, a Negro also of Marked Tree, on an open charge. Officers said the shooting followed an argument between Hill and Perry at the Silver Slipper Tavern. Perry was shot once in the forehead with a .38 caliber pistol, officers said.

Negroes Are Seeking More Offices

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Negroes are widening their quest for elective office in the United States. They stand to make gains in the Nov. balloting.

Connecticut will elect a Negro to statewide office for the first time. Each major party nominated a Negro for state treasurer.

California will have its first Negro congressman in another all-Negro contest.

New York and Massachusetts have Negroes running for statewide office—New York for the first time.

Negroes, many of them incumbents, are running for local or district offices, such as assemblymen, in numerous states.

The Deep South state of Georgia is slated to have a Negro in its legislature for the first time in more than a half century.

Leroy Johnson, an Atlanta Negro attorney, defeated three white candidates for the Democratic nomination to the state Senate in a newly delineated district. He will run in the general election against T. M. Alexander, a Negro who was unopposed in the Republican primary.

In Connecticut, Gerald A. Lamb, a dental technician, is running for state treasurer on the Democratic ticket and William D. Graham, a lawyer, on the Republican. They were the first Negroes nominated for statewide office in Connecticut.

Lamb is a native of Elizabeth City, N.C., and Graham is from Montgomery, Ala.

Also in Connecticut, Wilfred X. Johnson, first Negro ever elected to the state legislature, is seeking his third two-year term as a state representative. He is a native of Dawson, Ga.

In California's 21st congressional district in Los Angeles County, the Negro opponents for the House of Representatives are Assemblyman Augustus F. Hawkins, Democrat, and Herman Smith, an attorney, Republican. The district is heavily Democratic.

Three Negroes are assured of election to the California Assembly in all-Negro contests. Three will be a new high, compared with two at present. California has had at least one Negro in the assembly most of this century. Hawkins has held his post for 28 years.

New York's first Negro candidate for statewide office is Edward R. Dudley, Manhattan borough president, nominated by the Democrats for attorney general. James L. Flounery, a Los Angeles Republican Negro, is running for one of four elective seats on the State Board of Equalization but is rated little chance of success.

Dudley, born in South Boston, Va., faces an uphill fight against the incumbent, Republican Louis J. Lefkowitz, who is running on Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's ticket.

In Massachusetts, Edward W. Brooke, a Negro, is the Republican candidate for attorney general. A poll of Bay State publishers, editors and political writers indicated he has a good chance to defeat Francis E. Kelly, his Democratic opponent.

Bids on Center

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Bids will be opened at 2 p.m. Wednesday on construction of a new men's dormitory at the Arkansas Enterprise for the Blind Rehabilitation Center at Little Rock. A grant of $112,000 under the Hill-Burton Act has been received for construction of the building. The Lions Clubs of Arkansas, sponsors of the center, are raising an additional $75,000 to defray the cost.

THE STORY: Columbine introduces herself to her mother's guests at a cocktail party.

XV

Guests shook her hand and were complimentary as they went to their cottages to prepare for dinner. Columbine ate in the dining room and then remained to enjoy a motion picture exhibited in the game room.

It was after midnight when her phone jangled and she listened to the voice of Simpkins, who was almost in hysterics.

"You better dress and get down here!" he wailed. "More'n a dozen guests awful sick! Looks like they was poisoned."

"Get doctors quickly. Alert the hospital. I'll be down immediately."

It was not a pleasant night, though not so tragic as might well have been the case. Doctors arrived and worried with suffering patients. In a couple of hours all were sleeping and in no danger. The consensus among the doctors was that in some manner a drug that was not lethal, but only capable of causing acute discomfort, had been introduced into the food.

"You'd better get Lawyer Jones out here," Barbara Green advised. "There are apt to be legal thingumabobs."

"Will you call him, please?" Columbine requested.

In less than an hour, Sam Jones arrived and listened grimly.

"Fortunately," he said, "there were no serious consequences. But undoubtedly action for damages can be brought. I should talk to every guest who was affected as soon as possible. Maybe they will be reasonable."

She lifted the telephone and, alphabetically, called each of the cottages. In most identical words, she spoke to each guest.

"This is Miss Crugget. Will you be so gracious as to meet with me in the game room in one hour? . . . Oh, you are checking out I am sorry to hear that. It will take at least an hour for you to pack and make other arrangements. I should like an opportunity to bid you goodbye. In 60 minutes, in the game room, if you please."

In an hour, to Sam Jones' surprise, practically every guest was present in the game room. Columbine sat at a table in front such a mischance shall not happen again. I will oversee every morsel of food prepared in the kitchen. I will watch every dish as it is prepared. I do not ask for generosity, only for fairness. One more matter. No sleeping accommodations are available in the area. Railroad reservations are difficult. Therefore any of you who desire may retain your rooms until other arrangements can be made. And without charge. If you desire to take your meals elsewhere, they will be paid for by me for a reasonable time."

She smiled, and her smile was an effective weapon. "Since you are, in effect, prisoners here, I think it would be a noble notion for you to sleep on it. Perhaps you will be of a different mind in the morning."

In the front row, Madame Thistlebun rose majestically. "Listen, you all," she said. "I was sicker'n any two of you put together, because I got more area to be sick in. Some reptile played a scaly trick on this kid. She hadn't ought to be made to suffer for it by folks that's got no more decency in 'em than a herd of polecats. Me, I not only am stayin' in this hotel but I'm here 'n' now extendin' my reservation till the first of April."

A number of factors worked in favor of The Grove of Daphne. The first of these, of course, was the fact that the guests had no

Rockefeller Plane Picks Up Goldwater

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Winthrop Rockefeller's private plane will fly Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., to Little Rock Wednesday for the climax of the Republican campaign in Arkansas.

Goldwater and all four major GOP candidates for office will speak in a rally at Barton Coliseum in Little Rock Wednesday night. The GOP said 9,000 seats would be available.

The conservative leader will hold a news conference at the Little Rock Municipal Airport upon his arrival at 6 p.m., Republican state headquarters said today.

Rockefeller's plane will meet Goldwater in Dallas, where he will fly from his home in Phoenix, Ariz.

The rally begins with entertainment at 7 p.m. Then at 8 p.m. the GOP plans a grand march in political convention style, with all the candidates and Goldwater leading a parade around the hall.

The candidates will make short talks from 8 to 8:30, then Goldwater will make his address. He did not announce his topic in advance.

He will be plugging for Kenneth Jones, candidate for the Senate; Cy Carney Jr. and Warren Lieb long, candidates for the House, and Willis Ricketts, candidate for governor.

CCC Has Priority

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Federal district Judge Gordon E. Young ruled Tuesday the Commodity Credit Corporation has priority on its $99,207 claim against Lammers Rice Mill and Drier of Eudora. Young said the CCC suffered losses when Lammers canceled a contract to supply rice to the Indonesian Relief Mission and failed to notify the federal organization. The Lammers firm was adjudicated bankrupt June 30, 1960.

Columbine went in to the receiving teller's window and transacted her business. When she came out again upon the sidewalk, she saw a man in a black alpaca coat and a new sombrero leaning over the door of the car and talking to Barbara Green. The gentleman was Prof. Artemus Thumb.

"I beg your pardon," he said, "Miss Drugget."

His eyes, she noticed, were a peculiar light gray. Behind their thick-lensed spectacles they were odd, penetrating eyes.

"Professor Thumb," she said, "if you will step aside, I will take my seat."

"Will you not," he asked, never moving his eyes from her face, "spare me a moment?"

"To what purpose?"

"One of the tricks of nature," he said, "is that individuals sometimes resemble each other remarkably. It is not a freak in this age of mass production that articles of commerce should be exact duplicates."

"That observation," Columbine said dryly, "has width, depth and thickness."

"I was thinking of suitcases," he went on. "One could quite innocently pick up the wrong piece of baggage and walk away with it."

"I suppose this conversation has a point," Columbine said acidly.

"And," Professor Thumb went on, "the initial error would become irreparable if the individual, attracted by certain features of the contents, planned to retain—or even to remember—what she saw when she opened the case."

"Remember?" she asked.

"To remember would be almost as dangerous as to retain."

"Innocent professors enjoying sabbatical years," she said straitly, "do not hyper about making obscure threats. By the way, sir, are you as spurious as a professor as your friend is as a person?"

He handed her the page from his notebook upon which he had been sketching with firm, sure strokes of his pencil. She glanced at the unholy picture. It depicted a man with bulging brows upon which rested a diadem; he had a long, thin nose and hair—line mouth. That was the central of his three heads. The head growing from his right shoulder was that of a cat, and the head growing from his left shoulder was that of a toad. And the legs spreading from his breast were those of a spider. There was no body.

"You draw strange creatures," Columbine said, and she shivered. "For my room clerk you drew a standing elephant with distended stomach and human hands."

Thin lips smiled. "Not products of my imagination, not monstrosities, but veritable portraits of two of the most important demons in the hierarchy of Lucifuge Rofocale. The elephant is named Behemoth. Your spider with three heads is the demon Bael. I assure you, Miss Drugget, I am a proficient adept in this branch of learning."

Columbine seemed to give careful consideration to what Professor Thumb had disclosed.

"I suppose," she said didactically, "that any individual is entitled to select his own genus of insanity. But even so, sir, you have selected with notable eccentricity. There can be scant doubt, Professor Thumb, that you have popped your biscuit."

He shook his head, knuckled his eyes and spoke in a completely normal tone and manner. "The alteration in your appearance, Miss Drugget, has been astounding. A few hundred years ago you would have been burned as a witch. Neighbors would have accused you of selling your soul to the devil for beauty."

Barbara started the car. Professor Thumb clung to the door an instant, but then released his hold and stood on the curb, staring after them with his pale, baleful eyes.
